OPAF & The First Clinics benefit from IGive Online Shopping

November 28, 2011 – Waterloo, Iowa – As many of you are cyber shopping this holiday season, OPAF & The First Clinics can benefit from both your shopping and your searches. OPAF is participating with IGive for your Christmas shopping. IGive hosts close to a thousand different websites for online purchases, with names you know like Amazon.com, Barnes and Noble, Bath and Body Works, Delta Airlines as well as smaller businesses offering their goods and services. Once you register with IGive and select Orthotic & Prosthetic Assistance Fund (OPAF & The First Clinics) as your chosen charity and use their portal for shopping, a portion of your purchase will be donated to OPAF. IGive will even donate for searches that you do online through them. THERE IS NO COST TO YOU!

You will need to log on and register at www.igive.com. Remember to select OPAF & The First Clinics as your chosen charity. It is a small thing to do, to log onto IGive and make your purchase, but each small thing helps us provide adaptive recreational clinics at no cost to any participant. First Clinics are making a difference in people's lives each day. This is a small thing that you can do to help!

Please visit the OPAF website at www.opfund.org to see all the First Clinics currently running across the country. More Firsts are on the horizon for 2012, including First Fish, First Sail and First Walk/Run. Hope to see you at a First Clinic down the road!
